

MULLAN CHRONICLES

Volume Eleven, Issue #2

Winter 2006-2007

Travel the Mullan Road to Spokane May 5-7, 2007

The annual Mullan Day Conference is being held for three days this year in Spokane, WA. We are looking forward to renewing old friendships and meeting new people and having everyone join us.

Don Popejoy has put together a great program and is anxious to show off the Mullan-related points of interest in and around Spokane. Don will be sending us the names of hotels/motels near the Corbin Senior Center. He is trying to line up group rates.

We are looking for speakers. How 'bout it? We are always open to new ideas and material. In the year since the gathering in Helena, it is hoped everyone has become more aware of the importance of getting to know more on the subject of "our road."

These hotels/motels are in the same general location near the downtown area. You can find the Corbin Senior Center by going north on Monroe Street. You will drive less than 5 miles when you come to a brown sign, just below the Garland Hill, which points to your right and says "Corbin Senior Center."

The street to look for is Cleveland. You will turn to your right by a sewing machine factory; One block and on your left is the meeting hall. If you come to the Garland Theatre at the corner of Garland and Monroe, you have gone too far north on Monroe. Turn around, go down the hill about 5 blocks, look to your left for Cleveland, and follow the preceding instructions.

See you there !!
